

Hundreds of Islands

Directions: Use your workbook to help answer the questions.

1. The Bahamas is an archipelago. Define what an archipelago is.

A group of islands lying close to one another.

A group of countries lying close to one another.

2. Name THREE geographical features of The Bahamas other than the rock, islands, and cays.

3. Name the THREE groups the Bahama Islands are divided into.

4. From the charts name the THREE islands with the largest population.

5. On which Islands can you find the highest elevation?

Cat Island

New Providence

Grand Bahama

6. Name the islands that are popular for the following.

a. Pineapple _____

b. Onions _____

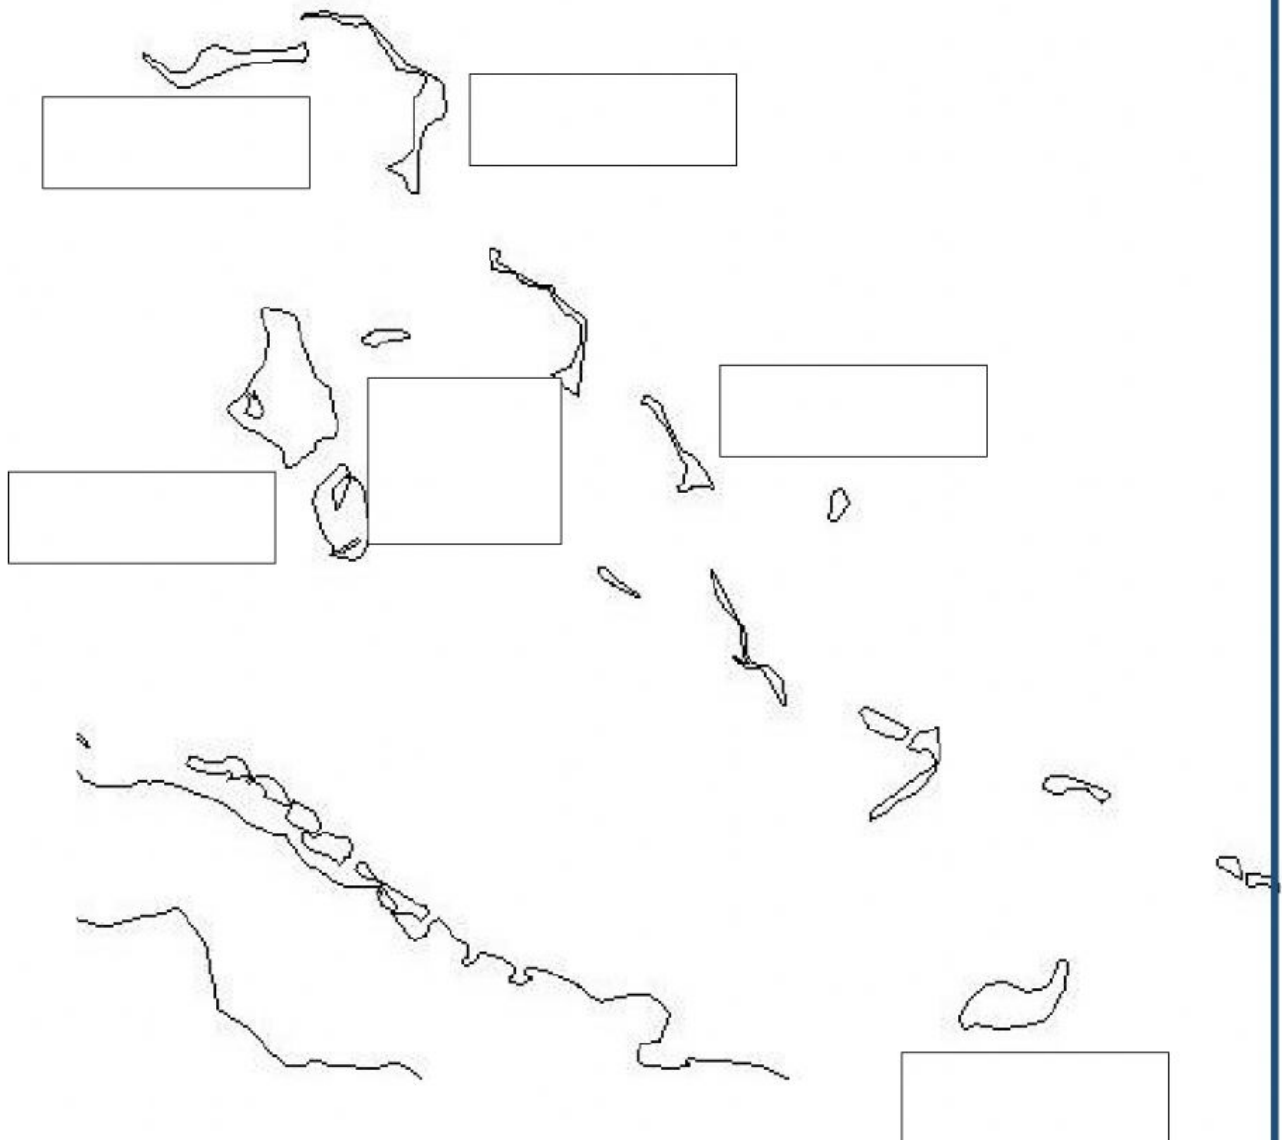

c. Cascarilla bark _____

d. Neem _____

e. Blue Holes _____

f. Medicine _____

Use the words below and drag them to the correct islands.

New Providence

Grand Bahama

Abaco

Andros

Inagua

Cat Island