

Exercise 1

Tick the sentences turned into reported speech.

Coche les phrases qui sont au style indirect.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> « I've got a tooth ache. » | <input type="checkbox"/> I answered I brushed my teeth every day. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> My dad said I had to go to the dentist. | <input type="checkbox"/> « Don't worry, you will be fine. » |
| <input type="checkbox"/> My mother wondered if I had eaten too many candies. | <input type="checkbox"/> « I have an appointment for tomorrow. » |

Exercise 2

Turn the direct speech sentences above into reported speech and vice versa.

Transforme les phrases précédentes qui sont au style direct au style indirect et vice versa.

– « I've got a tooth ache. »

– I answered I brushed my teeth every day.

– My dad said I had to go to the dentist.

– « Don't worry, you will be fine. »

– My mother wondered if I had eaten too many candies.

– « I have an appointment for tomorrow. »

Exercise 3

Turn the following conversation into reported speech. Watch out the tenses and other changes.

Rapporte le dialogue suivant au style indirect. Attention aux temps et autres changements à respecter.

LUCY : We are going to meet your sister at the airport. What time is she going to arrive ?

YOU : I don't know exactly. I am going to check ? Do you want me to send you a picture of her ?

LUCY : Good idea. I haven't seen her for a long time. She visited us two years ago !
