

Meriton Road

Choose the right answer.

1-What special ability did the narrator of the story have?

- a-He can smell better than other people.
- b-He can see better than others.
- c-He can hear better than others.

2-Where did the narrator hear a conversation between two men that called his attention?

- a-At the supermarket.
- b-At the train station.
- c-At the bus station.

3. What did the men want to buy?

- a-A hotel
- b-A piece of land
- c-A house.

4-What did they want to build there?

- a-A hotel
- b-A cinema
- c-A bank

5-Which part of the name of the town could the narrator listen to?

- a-The beginning
- b-The middle
- c-The end

6-What did the narrator decide to do after listening to the men's plans?

- a-To find the place, buy the land at a cheap price and then sell it to the men for more Money
- b-To find the place, buy the land and build his own hotel.
- c-To find the place and warn the owner of the land about the men's plans.

7-What were the names of the roads the narrator needed to find?

- a-Meriton Road and Corder Road.
- b-Meriton Road and London Road.
- c-Meriton Road and Newbridge Road.

8- What was the name of the town the narrator read on a man's bag on the train?

- a-Southbridge
- b-Newbridge
- c-Carbridge

9- Why did the owner of the bag get angry with the narrator?

- a-Because the narrator tried to steal his bag.
- b-Because the narrator was looking at his bag.
- c-Because the narrator didn't stop talking about the bag.

10- The owner of the land that the narrator wanted to buy was Mr. Corder. Why was that a problem?

- a-Mr. Corder was a millionaire.
- b-Mr. Corder was a thief.
- c-Mr. Corder was the man who got angry with him on the train.

11-How much did the narrator pay for the ground?

- a-Three hundred pounds.
- b-Five hundred pounds.
- c-Six hundred pounds.

12-What did the narrator see six months later when he visited Carbridge town?

- a-Mr. Corder was buying a hotel.
 - b-Some men were building a hotel for Mr. Corder
 - c-Some men were building a hotel on Meriton Road and London Road.
-