PERSONALITY AND FRIENDSHIP – VOCABULARY EXERCISES

Write the opposites:
hard-working	lazy
serious
open polite
friendly honest

Translate:
impolite	nekulturen
shy;insecure
mean dishonest
unreliable
unadventurous

By Nicole

THE VALUES IN FRIENDSHIP

-If you aren't _____ to your friend, he won't be nice to you too, (rude, selfish, nice)

-If you tell lies to your friend, he won't _____ you any more. (generous, trust, rude)

-If you are _____ in your friendship, that is not nice, because that means that you always only think of yourself, (clever, honest, selfish)

-It's nice that your friend is so _____, because you can tell him everything and he would keep it safe. (rude, secretive, trustworthy)

-If you are _____ in your life, it will be repaid, good things will happen to you, (generous, selfish, friendly)

-You always need to _____ other people, even if they are diferent. (accept, disrespect, make fun)

-Oh, my god! She is soooooo _____! I love her eyes so much. (ugly, beautiful, lazy)

By Inge

Complete with the missing nouns and adjectives. See the example.
Example: loyal	loyalty
	competitiveness
confident generosity
angry
	kindness
happy patience
honest
	independence sincere

By Ema

(FUNNY, CLEVER, HELPS, OPTIMISTIC)

My best friend Eva is so very _____. We always laugh together.

She always _____ you when you are in trouble.

She is always _____. If something goes wrong, she believes it will be better.

She is very _____ and her grades are good.

By Lucija

liveworksheets.com