

Chapter 4-5

1. Read and complete with the correct word.

When they arrived in the center of the town, Vlad noticed that his house was so different - similar from the lovely little houses in the village.

Vlad and Flit hid behind a hedge - bench because humans hates - loves vampires. Mortemia always told him "Vampires and humans are sworn friends - enemies". For that reason, Vlad kept his distance from the children to looked at where they went - go and how they behave. Then he stopped behind a wall - tree and watched as the children said goodbye to their parents in the school - house gates. Inside school ground children were - weren't playing, talking, shouting and using a rope to jump over- all things that Vlad had read about.

A human boy - girl saw him behind the tree and rudely said him that it was wrong spying people. This human was Minxie - Weird. She thought that Vlad was - wasn't a new student so she pulled him towards the school building.

The teacher, Minxie and the rest of children didn't think - though that he was dressing up - costume as a vampire. The teacher - Flit remain him that dressing up as their favourite character is next week - month.

Suddenly, Vlat got horrified when he saw Flit - bats flying in front of his face because it was worried - happy about Vlad's desition.

Minxie didn't see - saw Flit and started to shouting and pointing at him, but Flix horrified shot down the Vlad's cape - hoot. Fortunately, nobody believed Minxie because they knew that bats didn't come out in the day - night. Vlad pretended to be confident and said that there weren't nothing in his cape.

Minxie was convinced of what she had seen so she didn't take out her eyes of his cape. She was determinate to find the truth.

ANNA WILSON
ILLUSTRATED BY
KATHRYN OUEST