

Infinitive or Gerund?

Words followed by infinitives: afford, agree, aim, appear, attempt, arrange, choose, claim, consent, dare, decide, demand, deserve, expect, fail, forget, hesitate, hope, intend, learn, manage, mean, neglect, need, offer, plan, prepare, pretend, proceed, promise, refuse, remember, seem, struggle, swear, threaten, volunteer, wait, want, wish

1. I can't afford (go) overseas at the moment.
2. They plan (visit) their grandfather next week.
3. Please don't forget (lock) the door when you leave the house.
4. I hesitate (say) he is a bad person, but there is room for improvement!
5. She promised (confirm) my appointment today.
6. If you fail (plan), you plan (fail)

Words followed by gerunds: admit, anticipate, avoid, can't wait, can't stand, carry on, complete, deny, discuss, dislike, don't mind, enjoy, fancy, finish, get used to, give up, keep on, imagine, involve, mention, mind, miss, postpone, practise, recommend, resent, risk, stop, suggest, tolerate

1. He doesn't mind (lose) a days pay, as long as he can go to his son's graduation.
2. I don't recommend (eat) that food. It looks off to me.
3. He denied (steal) his mother's money.
4. He dislikes (visit) his aunt because she is mean to him.
5. They didn't anticipate (lose) the match.
6. The children practised (throw) the ball.

Decide which sentences need the infinitive and which need the gerund.

1. We hope (see) you when we visit Moscow.
2. You seem (be) struggling with this work.
3. If you keep on (swear) you will be punished.
4. He decided (quit) his job.
5. She risks (lose) all her money.
6. You need (think) of a better plan.
7. I finally finished (paint) the house.

Words followed by infinitives:

struggle, volunteer, hope, refuse, deserve, offer, forget, learn, expect, threaten, wish, can't wait, choose, resent, learn

Words followed by gerunds:

postpone, enjoy, involve, practise, suggest, stop, imagine, tolerate, don't mind, give up,

1. I need someone to volunteer (work) this weekend.
2. We enjoyed (have) a barbecue with friends.
3. If you don't study, you deserve fail.
4. You must practise (play) the piano to pass your music exam.
5. Can you imagine (win) a million dollars?
6. I can't tolerate (see) cruelty to animals.
7. Did you forget (do) your homework?
8. I struggle (understand) why you did that.
9. Please stop (whistle)! It is getting on my nerves!
10. I suggest (take) an umbrella in case it rains.
11. We hope (move) into our new house next week.
12. One day she will learn (manage) her time better.
13. I refuse (stay) in this place any longer!
14. Getting your degree will involve (work) very hard.
15. Did you offer (help) them clean up the mess?
16. Do you wish (attend) the next conference?
17. Did you expect (pass) this exam?
18. His boss threatened (fire) him if he didn't work harder.
19. I can't wait (finish) all my exams.
20. We are going to postpone (play) tennis due to bad weather.
21. I don't mind (help) you wash the dishes.
22. If you choose (be) lazy, you choose fail.
23. I have given up (smoke) for health reasons.
24. I resent you (waste) my time.
25. You must learn (wake) up early.

