		1	INTRODUCTION TO	EXCEL
Usi	ng the note	es discussed and provide	ed, answer the following	g questions. (20 points)
1.	What is	the purpose of Microso	2 2 2
2.	What is	a Spreadsheet? (2 point
	There ar	re 4 ways in which you	can open MS Excel, lis	st them and the way they are used. (8 3.
	Match th
 4. 	Match th	ne following commonly orrect term at the end of	each definition. (6 poi	Definition
	Match the of the co	ne following commonly orrect term at the end of Terms	This displays the	Definition e contents of the active cell, if any colored column located on the left si
	Match the color and by	ne following commonly orrect term at the end of Terms	This displays the This is the gray-column 1 in the
	Match the color of	ne following commonly orrect term at the end of Terms Title bar Name box	This displays the This is the gray-column 1 in the	Definition e contents of the active cell, if any colored column located on the left si worksheet which contains the number
	Match the color of	ne following commonly orrect term at the end of Terms Title bar Name box Row heading	This displays the This is the gray-column 1 in the This displays the This displays the This displays the This is where the This is where the This is where the This is where the This displays the This is where t	Definition e contents of the active cell, if any colored column located on the left si worksheet which contains the numbe e cell reference of the active cell e name of the file is displayed ured row of letters used to identify ea