

3. Mr. Bully is not feeling very well. He is visiting his doctor. He is telling him all sorts of strange things. The doctor doesn't understand him and he is asking him a lot of questions.

Examples: Mr. Bully: Something makes me nervous.
Doctor: What makes you nervous?
Mr. Bully: I saw someone yesterday.
Doctor: Who did you see?

Now you are the doctor.

Mr Bully: Something seems wrong.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: I wake up in the middle of the night. I hear something.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: I hear strange voices. Someone laughs.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: I don't know exactly. I heard someone yesterday.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: Someone was laughing.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: I don't know. But I know something is wrong.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: When I hear this laugh, something frightens me.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: Someone wants to kill me.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: They were trying to kill me yesterday.

Doctor: _____

Mr Bully: Don't you understand? You must help me doctor, please.