

SILVERHOOK'S Big Treasure

BEGINNING

He sailed to a small island and found the biggest, most valuable treasure of all. He put the chest into his ship, but it was so heavy that the ship started to sink! He didn't know what to do. He wanted the treasure for himself and if he asked for help, somebody may steal his treasure.

MIDDLE

Then, he saw another ship sailing by. It was Captain Redbeard, his biggest enemy! Captain Silverhook didn't want to ask for help because he didn't want to share the treasure, but his ship was sinking and he didn't want to drown. Captain Redbeard helped Silverhook, and on the way back to the island they started talking and realised they had many things in common. By the end of the journey, the two pirates became friends and shared the treasure.

END

It all started on the small island of Chiquita, when Captain Silverhook heard of the biggest treasure of all times. Silverhook was a mean and fearless pirate, he had a silver hook in his right hand and a wooden leg. He had many enemies, but there was one that he hated the most...Redbeard. One day Captain Silverhook heard of a big treasure, and he went after it. He travelled for many days and crossed many seas.
