

Exercise 1

Replace the word good with a suitable alternative.

1 The old couple have been married a good fifty years.

2 The food in the new restaurant is very good, but it is rather expensive.

3 Dave and Peter have been good friends since primary school.

4 I hired a man to work on the flower borders and he is a good gardener.

5 We all had a good time at the beach party.

6 Early evening before dinner would be a good time to call on Mrs. Park.

7 The Jones family must have had good weather in their holiday resort---they are all suntanned.

8 It's good that you are able to talk over your plans with your parents.

9 The boss will not be angry if you have a good excuse for being late.

10 It was very good of your daughter to babysit for my family at such short notice.

11 The children had been good and so were allowed to go to the cinema as a treat.

12 It was good advice in the circumstances.

13 Jill always seems to be cross, but her sister has a good disposition,

14 The pupils who Played truant were given a good scolding by the teacher,

15 It was the beginning of the tennis season and Tim was not yet in good condition.

16 The lawn mower was in good order when I put it away, but it is broken row.

17 All the children at nursery school prefer junk snacks to good food.

18 Mary must be going somewhere special—she's wearing the- good suit

19 All good citizens obey the law.

20 That sketch of the building is a good piece of work.

liveworksheets.com