When my hands don't play the strings the same way (mmm...)

Place your head on my beating heart

When my hair's all but gone

Kiss me under the light of a thousand stars

I will be loving you 'til we're 70

Take me into your loving arms

When your legs don't work like they used to before

Maybe just the touch of a hand

Will your mouth still remember the taste of my love?

Will your eyes still smile from your cheeks?
