

Future Perfect/Future Perfect Progressive

Put the verbs in parenthesis into the future perfect or future perfect progressive.

1. By the end of this month, I _____ here for six years.
(work)
2. It's too late to pick her up at the airport. Her plane
_____ by now. (land)
3. You'd better call him before 8 am or he _____ for work.
(leave)
4. The painters said they _____ by Friday. (finish)
5. Do you realize that if we can keep the store open until the end of June, our family _____ shoes for fifty years? (sell)
6. By the time we arrive in Australia, we _____ for twenty-four hours. (travel)

Select the correct tense.

1. She _____ at work tomorrow because she is moving.
a. Is not being b. Won't be c. Will not have been
2. By June, Neil _____ in Miami for three years.
a. Will live b. Will be living c. will have been living
3. That show you wanted to watch _____ by the time we get home.
a. Starts b. Will start c. Will have started
4. The apartment is really messy. _____ me clean it up later?
a. Are you helping b. Will you help c. Will have helped
5. It's cold tonight, isn't it? I _____ the heat on.
a. Turn b. Will turn c. Will be turning

Select the correct time expressions.

1. By / By then this time tomorrow we will have been in Italy for two weeks.
2. Julia should be at the airport by nine o'clock, but I doubt she will have even left home by then / by the time.
3. We won't have the new software installed on the computer until / since tomorrow.
4. The meeting will have finished until / by six o'clock.
5. The painters will have finished painting the apartment before / until the Browns move in.

5 a) Look at Monica's schedule for tomorrow and then complete the sentences below.

Wednesday
8:30 - 9:00 am	drive the kids to school
9:30 - 12:00	do the housework
12:30 - 2:30 pm	do the grocery shopping
3:30 - 4:00	pick up the kids from school
4:30 - 5:30	help kids with homework
6:00 - 6:45	cook dinner
9:00 - 11:00	watch TV
11:30 pm	go to bed

1. At 9:00 am, she will have driven the kids to school.
2. By 11:30 am, she _____ the housework for two hours.
3. Before she picks up the kids from school, she _____ the grocery shopping.
4. By the time she starts cooking dinner, she _____ the kids with their homework.
5. At 10:30 pm, she _____ TV for an hour and a half.
6. By 12:00 am, she _____ to bed.