Job Interview

A: Hi, I'm Nancy Mandez. I'm the hiring manager.

B: Nice to meet you Ms. Mandez. I'm Karen Banks.

A: Please have a seat.

B: Thank you. This is a copy of my resume (CV) and a list of references.

A: Thank you. I see you applied for the teacher's assistant position. Tell me about yourself.

B: Yes, that's right. I was born in Texas, but I have been living in Los Angeles for 15 years. I'm currently studying Education at night, because I need to work to pay for my studies. I consider myself an active person and I love getting involved in my community, for example, once a month, I participate in the storytelling program in the Library, where I read to kids.

A: Can you tell me about your work experience?

B: I have worked as a waitress for 2 years and I did my internship in a school as an Art teacher's assistant last summer.

A: I see. Why would you like to work here?

B: I'm very interested in working here because I want to focus on my career and I believed I can gain some experience related to it.

A: what are your strengths?

B: I think I'm responsible, reliable and creative. I am a team worker and very patient.

A: Any weakness you would like to mention?

B: I think my lack of experience can be a weakness, but I am willing to learn and I have passion for what I do, so I believe it won't be a problem.

A: Can you tell me more about your other skills?

B: I have basic computer skills and I can speak and write in French. I am also qualified in first aid.

A: Can you give me two good reasons why we should hire you?

B: Well, I'm organized, dependable and hard-working. I'm also a good team worker. I'm willing to learn and do my best every day.

A: Thank you very much for your time. We will be in contact with you.

B: Thank you. I look forward to hearing from you.
