

Choose the necessary correct option to denote the future action. Mind the task!
The orange tasks refer ONLY TO THE ONE following the task sentence!

Choose TWO correct options

- We _____ married in July.
1. are getting 2. Get 3. are going to get 4. will have get
- The conference _____ at 6. Don't be late.
1. is starting 2. starts 3. will have started 4. will be started
- You look tired. _____ you a cup of tea?
1. Will I get 2. Shall I get 3. Am I getting 4. Am I going to get

Choose TWO correct options

- _____ that computer later on?
1. Will you use 2. Will you have used 3. Will you be using 4. Are you going to use

Choose the INCORRECT answer

- When he comes to London next week, he _____ with some friends.
1. 'll be staying 2. will have stayed 3. is going to stay 4. .is staying
- _____ me a favour? Can you water the plants for me while I'm away?
1. Will you do 2. Are you doing 3. Will you have done 4. Are you going to do
- If you want to talk to me, I _____ at the sports hall all afternoon.
1. train 2. 'm training 3. will train 4. will be training
- Do you think you _____ cleaning before dad arrives?
1. finish 2. are finishing 3. will have finished 4. are going to finish
- Oh no, it's broken! Don't worry I _____ you a new one.
1. 'll buy 2. 'm buying 3. 'll be buying 4. 'm going to buy

Choose the INCORRECT answer

- We _____ into our new flat at the end of next week.
1. move 2. are moving 3. 'll be moving 4. are going to move

After finishing the task, enjoy the view of late autumn near Kolomna:

