

Exercise 1: Exchanging information about do's and don'ts in Thailand

Complete the dialogue between tour guide and foreign tourists exchanging information about do's and don'ts in Thailand with the following words.

respect	recommend	suggestion	wear
take off	allowed	take photograph	dress
write	quiet	swim	disrespectful

Youth guide: Good morning everyone! Did you sleep well at night?

Groups of tourists: Great!

Tourist 1: The bed is quite comfortable

Youth guide: Today we are going to visit Wat Pa Khao Khong Ka, Wat Pa Baan Ma and Folk Museum at Kha at Khokkrachai Sub-district. There are a few things that I would (1) you about do's and don'ts in these places. You should (2) shoes when you enter the ordination hall. This is because it is (3) in Thai culture. Please do not (4) shorts and singlet at the religious places such as the temples. This is because it is not (5) to do that in Thailand.

Tourist 2: All right. We understand that! Are there any other things we should know?

Youth guide: Yes, there are a few things for example, you should not (6) in red with some places. One more thing, please be (7) inside the ordination hall because it will disturb another people. When you get inside the ordination hall Please also sit politely in front of the Buddha image because it is the way to show (8) to the image.

Tourist 3: What about at a 100-year-Wooden Bridge? Do we need to beware of anything?

Youth guide: Actually, there are some important things for you to do in this natural place. Most importantly, please do not (9) outside the bridge because it is not safe. Please do not (10) anything on the bridge such as your name because it destroys the place. In case you visit Lam Chae Dam, please do not (11) at night because it is not allowed to do so.

Tourist 4: Ok. We got that. Thanks a lot for your (12)

Youth guide: You're most welcome. Now, let's let on the bus.