WHEN	WHILE
Introduces a second action	Two sentences in the same sentence to express parallel actions.
Used in simple past clauses	Two actions happening at the same time
Interrupt on going actions

COMPLETE WITH WHILE/ WHEN.

1. _____ my father was cooking the dinner; my mother was preparing a salad.

2. I was reading a book, _____ my friend arrived to my house.

3. _____ the teacher began the class; some students were not in the classroom.

4. I arrived to the school, _____ all my friends were making the project.

5. _____ she was in high school; she traveled a lot.

6. I enjoyed riding bike _____ I was a secondary school student.

7. _____Sue was taking violin lessons; she met an old friend.

8. My neighbors were having a picnic _____ it started to rain.

9. My sister was skating _____I was riding bike.

10. _____ I checked my Facebook the last time I had a lot of notifications.

