The Present Simple Tense of the verb TO DO

Pronoun	Affirmative form	Interrogative form	Negative form
I/You/ We/They	I do my homework.	Do I/we/you/they do …? – Yes, I do./No, I don't.	I/We/You/They do not do … (do not = don't)
He/She/ It	He does his homework.	Does he/she/it do …? – Yes, he does./No, he doesn't.	He/She/It does not do … (does not = doesn't)

Use the correct form of the verb to do in the Present Simple Tense:

1. They _____ the housework.
2. My mother _____ the test. (not)
3. _____ Susan _____ the washing up?
4. We _____ the shopping every weekend.
5. _____ you _____ your homework every day?
6. I _____ this job every week. (not)
7. Ben _____ the cooking in his family.
8. My children _____ that. (not)
9. _____ they _____ the dishes every day?
10. My father _____ his exercises in the morning.

JKENGLISH4U.IN.RS

liveworksheets.com