Going to a film festival

21st January 8:15 pm

If you read my blog regularly, you know that I love going to the cinema. In fact, I

(1) I could watch films all day, every day! Of course, there's no chance (2) that happening, unless you go to a film festival.

And that's exactly what I did last weekend. I managed (3) get a free ticket from my friend's mum who works at the cinema. If she hadn't given me the ticket, I (4) have definitely bought one anyway because they were showing some great films.

The festival was brilliant, but there were some strict rules – no-one was (5) to enter after a film had started. One girl arrived just a minute late and they didn't (6) her in.

I wasn't able to see every film, but I did manage to watch most of them. I think it's on for another week, so check it out!
