

Knowledge of Language Functions

Responding to situations

Look at the situations and think of a response without looking at the given choices. Choose the one that is close to your own response.

3 Fill in each conversation with the missing line. Write the letter A, B or C in each box.

- A. I'll let you know.
- B. I hope it turns out to be nothing serious.
- C. My ankle is killing me!

- A. You poor thing!
- B. It might not be that bad.
- C. Thank goodness!

- A. I'm going to see the doctor this afternoon.
- B. I pulled a muscle at the gym.
- C. Poor you!

Reading Comprehension

4 Read the text. Choose the correct answer. Write X in the box next to answer A, B or C.

Hi Karen,

Guess what happened to me! Yesterday started like an ordinary day. I went to school, played football and then did my homework. At six o'clock, I was watching TV with my family when we heard that a hurricane was coming! We quickly had dinner and by seven o'clock it started to rain. At about half past seven the wind began to blow loudly.

The hurricane lasted for five hours, but we stayed inside for twelve hours, until seven this morning. A lot of trees fell down on our street! At least my mum's and dad's cars are OK and my school is still open.

Did you hear about the hurricane on the news?

Daniel

1. What was Daniel doing when he heard about the hurricane?

A.

B.

C.

2. What time did it start raining?

A.

B.

C.

3. How long did the hurricane last?

A.

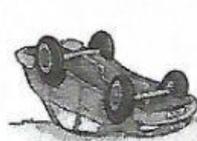

B.

C.

4. Which problem did the hurricane cause?

A.

B.

C.