

At the end of the story there are facts about various books in the Australian national library. Use the internet to find out the same information about each item in general:

What is the smallest book in the world?

---

What is the tallest book in the world (not a statue of a book)?

---

What is the oldest book in the world?

---

What is the most expensive book in the world?

---

What is the longest book ever written?

---

What is the Guttenberg bible?

---

What is the Book of Kells?

---

