A COMIC STRIP

MY SHOPPING TRIP

I'm meeting my friend Anna and I'll probably spend some of my pocket money!

He's great. I'll give him a tip!

How much does this purple bag cost?

It's £20.

Sorry, I won't take it.

I'll give you the money when we're at the table.

I'll have a look at this novel.

I'll donate £1 to help him.

Anna, can you lend me £1, please?

6. Book page 44 exercise 2. Read for general ideas. Match texts 1-8 to pictures A-H.

1 This is Clare. She's just arrived at Camden Market. She gets pocket money from her parents every week and she's saved £10.

2 This stall sells second-hand books. Clare wants a good book for her holidays. The novel she likes costs £6.

3 Camden Market is in London and it is a great place to buy clothes, shoes, CDs, books and many more things! You can find new and second-hand products. Local people and tourists generally visit the market at weekends.

4 Clare likes this bag very much but it's expensive!

5 This is Clare's favourite place for a rest. It's a coffee bar in the centre of Camden.

6 Some people don't come to Camden to shop for things – they come to earn money. They perform in the street and people give them money. This guitar player is a great musician.

7 Other people collect money for charity. This boy is collecting money for sick children.

8 Oh no! Clare hasn't got any more money! She'll borrow some money for her bus ticket.

7. Book page 44 exercise 3. Read for details. Write TRUE, FALSE, NOT MENTIONED.

- 1 Clare got the money from her part-time job.
- 2 You can only buy new products at Camden.
- 3 Clare bought a book.
- 4 Camden is only open at weekends.
- 5 Clare spent all her money.

You rock!

You have done it!
