

Pathogen Review

1) Pair the disease to its correct disease-causing pathogen box.

Bacteria

Virus

Fungus

Protozoa

Salmonella

Malaria

HIV

Rose Black Spot

2) How do pathogens reproduce and make us ill?

Fill in the missing parts of the sentence using the options provided.

- a) Bacteria reproduce _____. They produce _____ that _____ and make us feel ill.
- b) Viruses _____. They _____ inside the host cell. Once the virus has replicated it _____ which makes us feel ill.
- c) Fungus reproduce using _____. In plants, rose black spot prevents _____. This affects the plants _____.
- d) Protists act as _____. They reproduce inside a hosts _____.

3) Protist Lifecycle

Drag and drop the boxes into the correct stage of the lifecycle.

Mosquito is now a vector for the protist. Protist sits in mosquito saliva

Mosquito bites person infected with Malaria. The Plasmodium protist.

Mosquito needs to make eggs to needs blood.

Mosquito bites sucks blood of a healthy person. It first injects its saliva into the person, transferring the protist and causing infection.

