

Interrupted Actions

Read the text. Then choose the correct option.

Yesterday, Tim and Jake were having fun at Tim's house. Tim was riding his bike and Jake was rollerblading. "Let's go to the park," Tim said. "Ok, let's go!" Jake said happily. They were in the street and Tim was riding his bike fast when a car appeared. It wasn't going fast, but it almost hit the boys. Tim was scared and fell off his bike.

He sprained his ankle and he couldn't walk well. The driver got out of his car and helped the boys. "You should be careful! You shouldn't rollerblade or ride your bike in the street and you must always wear a helmet!" the man said. The boys listened to the man carefully because he was right. They went home and decided to be more careful next time.

1. Jake was riding his bike / rollerblading.
2. Tim was / wasn't riding his bike fast.
3. Suddenly, a car hit / was hitting Tim and Jake.
4. The driver was going / wasn't going fast.
5. Tim hurt his leg / head.
6. The boys listened to the man carefully / happily.

Look at the pictures and the words given. Write sentences using the Past Continuous as in the example.

1. Jake / play football / yesterday afternoon.

Jake wasn't playing football yesterday afternoon.

Jake was cleaning the car.

(clean the car)

2. Mary and Tom / have a picnic / yesterday at 7 o'clock.

(read a book)

3. It / snow / last Monday.

(rain)

4. Lou and her family / take photos / yesterday morning.

(have breakfast)

There was a blackout last night. What were the people doing? Listen and match the names with the pictures.

- Bob
- Mark
- Julie
- Bob's mother
- Bob's father

After listening, write sentences.

1. Bob _____ when there was a blackout.
2. Mark _____.
3. Julie _____.
4. Bob's mother _____.
5. Bob's father _____.