

AUTUMN

1. Listen to Fiona. How many seasons are there in Singapore?
2. Read Janek's answer to Fiona's question from the recording. Choose the correct options.

Janek

There are four seasons in Poland: autumn, winter, spring and summer. It's autumn now. It ¹ often / rarely rains. The days are ² short / long and it gets dark really ³ early / late. My favourite autumn month is October. The trees look beautiful with yellow, red and brown leaves. We call it the ⁴ golden / silver Polish autumn.

3. Find numbers 1-6 in the picture. Listen and match the words from the box to the numbers.

4. Listen to a description of the photo below. What do the words mean?

cemetery

candles

grave

5. Listen to the text and complete the text with the words from the box. There are two extra words.

flags flowers lights months trees years

November Holidays

The 1st of November is All Saints' Day. This is a big holiday in Poland. People always visit cemeteries to put candles and ¹ on the graves of their loved ones. They often meet their families and friends there. Some people go to cemeteries in the evening. When it's dark, graves look magical with thousands of ².

Ten days after All Saints' Day Polish people celebrate Independence Day. They look back on the 11th of November 1918 – the first day of Poland's independence after 123 ³. There are different festivals, parades and concerts all over the country. Of course there are Polish ⁴ everywhere.