2.2

I shouted 'Eureka'!

VOCABULARY

Look at these words. They are related to books and films. You should check their meaning and translate them into Catalan:

Translate:

2.2 Books and films

award (n) /bˈcwˈc/
beginning (n) /bɪˈgɪnɪŋ/
bestseller (n) /,best'selo(r)/
chapter (n) /'tʃæptə(r)/ critic (n) /'krɪtɪk/
editor (n) /'editə(r)/
ending (n) /'endɪŋ/
hit (n) /hrt/
narrator (n) /nəˈreɪtə(r)/ novelist (n) /'novəlist/
publisher (n) /'pablifə(r)/
review (n) /rɪ'vjuː/
setting (n) /'setin/

LISTENING:

2 Complete the information about the podcast (A-F) with six words.

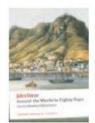

award beginning bestseller chapter critic ending editor hit narrator novelist publisher review setting

Episode 54:

Where do (A)	find inspiration for t	the characters, (B)
ma	and plots in their novels? This week we look at the ideas behind four $(\mathbf{c})$
	, two classics and two modern stories, to find out. All four have received positive ( D )	from (E)	and readers over the years and (F)	all around the world have translated them into lots of different languages.

3 (1) Listen to the podcast. Complete the information (1-8).

Jules Verne,

Around the World in Eighty Days

activity: reading a

(1) in a café

inspiration: an

(2) for

a trip around the world

Robert Louis Stevenson,

Treasure Island

activity: painting on holiday in (3)

inspiration: the map of an

Suzanne Collins,

The Hunger Games

activity: watching TV in

(5)

inspiration: two

TV programmes about young people, one a competition and another about

(6)

Stephanie Meyer,

Twilight

(4)

activity:

(7)

inspiration: a

(8)

about a young vampire and a young woman

- 4 (1) Listen and choose the correct option.
- 1 Jules Verne imagined the hero of his story reading a similar / different article to the one he was reading.
- 2 When Louis Stevenson had his idea he continued / changed activities.
- 3 Suzanne Collins saw the two TV programmes on (the same channel) / (different channels).
- 4 The young man wanted to do something that was normal / (unusual) for someone who is in love.

