

PIDGINS AND CREOLES

TRUE OR FALSE

1. There are many pidgins and creoles because they are language categories. (...)
2. Pidgins and creoles are languages that develop when speakers of different languages come into contact. (...)

MATCH THE TYPE OF LANGUAGE WITH ITS CHARACTERISTICS (It is not necessary to fill in all the boxes. Place the boxes in the order you hear them from left to right).

Usually starts as a pidgin

Arise quickly as a tool for communication

Basic grammar of their own native language

Some creoles are based on English, French or Spanish

Because it is passed down to another generation, it can have native speakers

No native speakers

Usually starts with a restricted use

Use simple vocabulary from the "dominant" group's language

PIDGINS		CREOLES

CHOOSE THE CORRECT ALTERNATIVE

1. In the example of pidgin language, the speaker mentions:
2. Extended pidgin languages can:
3. Pidgins and creoles are fascinating because: