

WRITING COMPOUND COMPLEX SENTENCES

Combine these sentences to make one compound-complex sentence.

1. Susan comes from work. She teaches kids from her neighborhood. They meet in the evenings.
(after, and)

2. The man spoke little English. Mary understood him. She couldn't help him. (although, but)

3. I'm allergic to strawberries. I can't eat them. They look delicious. (since, yet)

4. My boss yelled at me. I got angry. I quit. (when, so)

5. I didn't buy everything I needed. I forgot the list at home. I will have to go again tomorrow.
(because, and)