

- ___ 10. The young children worked enthusiastically on their first art project.
- | | |
|---------------------|------------|
| a. young | c. first |
| b. enthusiastically | d. project |

Select the word that corrects each paragraph. If the paragraph is correct, select "Correct as is."

- ___ 11. I strolled slowly through the halls, listening for the sounds of anyone out of class. Sometimes, it is difficult being principal, but someone has to do it. My ears are sharp, and my skills are sharply.
- | | |
|------------|------------------|
| a. Slow | c. Sharper |
| b. Sharply | d. correct as is |
- ___ 12. The shy, frightened boy named Paul quickly hid when he heard the terrifying bullies loud making their way through the park. Under the rusty slide, he waited anxiously for the bullies to go past.
- | | |
|-----------|------------------|
| a. quick | c. anxiously |
| b. loudly | d. correct as is |
- ___ 13. As congress and the president argued heatedly about how and how much to protect African Americans' rights, former confederates acted increasingly hostile to their African American fellow citizens. Many white Southerners were badly frustrated by losing their political power.
- | | |
|---------------|------------------|
| a. heated | c. bad |
| b. increasing | d. correct as is |
- ___ 14. Joann is a lovely young woman, but she often fails to do good on her homework.
- | | |
|------------|------------------|
| a. love | c. well |
| b. oftenly | d. correct as is |
- ___ 15. Matthew ran immediately home after school, because he had an immediate task that he had to do. He worked hard, but in the end, it came out bad.
- | | |
|----------------|-----------|
| a. immediate | c. hardly |
| b. immediately | d. badly |