

- 1. The temperature increase is due to natural cycles.
- 2. This increase accelerated because of the green house effect.
- 3. The greenhouse effect happens because industrial activities produce some gases.
- 4. The IPCC gets together so that they review new information about climate change.
- 5. The temperature increase happens because natural cycles produce them.
- 6. This increase accelerated because humans provoke the green house effect.
- 7. The greenhouse effect is due to industrial activities that produce some gases.
- 8. They created a group called the IPCC so that they find solutions

Notice the ideas after the connectors (in blue). Are they full sentences or noun phrases?

Sort them accordingly and in order. Number 1 is an example.

Remember: full sentence contain a subject (doer of the action) a verb and compliment.

Nouns: word or group of words that function like things, concepts or situations.

Full sentence	Noun phrase
	natural cycles

