

(A) Form negations

1) Susan lives in a blue house.

2) We went fishing last weekend.

3) Our neighbours have bought a new car.

4) They are singing in the rain.

5) Phil has a new pet – a dog.

6) Every morning, she washes her face and drinks a cup of coffee.

7) They can speak Russian fluently.

8) He was driving a fast car.

9) We will travel to Iceland next summer.

10) They had eaten too much.

(B) Form yes/no-questions

1) We must do our homework every weekend.

2) They are watching a boring film.

3) She has been to France before.

4) He lost his socks.

5) Sarah loves chocolate.

6) Susan and Sam always have breakfast together.

7) He was listening to his favourite band.

liveworksheets.com

8) Dad had washed the car.

9) I never drink milk.

10) My brother's hobbies are painting and jogging.

(C) Ask for the underlined part of the sentence

1) Every Sunday my grandparents visit us.

2) Mrs Jacobsen has been living in this street for fifteen years.

3) I am relaxing at the moment.

4) We will probably move to Italy in two years.

5) Sarah usually does her homework in the living room.

6) Last winter holidays John broke his leg because he slipped on the ice.

7) Her parents had won the lottery.

8) We had a lot of fun at your party last Saturday.

9) They were watching a film when their parents entered the room.

10) My best friend may drive his motorbike to school.

liveworksheets.com