

Fill in the gaps, using either present simple, present progressive, past simple or past progressive.

These are Sarah and Tom Miller who (1) (live) in a small town in the countryside together with their parents. Mr Miller (2) (work) at a bank and Mrs Miller (3) (be) a housewife. She (4) (not only look) after the house, but she (5) (also make) sure that the huge garden is always nice and tidy. At the moment Sarah and Tom (6) (be) at school, Mr Miller (7) (have) a meeting and Mrs Miller and her neighbour, Mrs Evasson, (8) (sit) in the garden, drinking some coffee. Every Wednesday Mrs Miller and Mrs Evasson (9) (meet), but one week ago Mrs Evasson (10) (not visit). She (11) (not feel) well and (12) (go) to the doctor's.

In the afternoon Tom (13) (usually play) football with his best friend Peter, but today they (14) (ride) their bikes because Peter wants to try out his new one. Two days ago it (15) (be) Peter's birthday and he (16) (have) a party with all his friends. He (17) (get) a new racing bike from his parents, some books and computer games and lots of sweets. Tom (18) (be) at Peter's birthday party, too and he and the other guests (19) (have) a lot of fun. While his guests (20) (watch), Peter (21) (blow) out the candles of his birthday cake and (22) (make) a wish. All his friends (23) (want) to know what he had wished for, but Peter (24) (not tell) anybody.

While Tom was at Peter's birthday party, his sister Sarah (25) (stay) at home. She (26) (read) all afternoon and finally (27) (finish) the book at 7 p.m. Sarah (28) (be) a real bookworm and she (29) (often read) two books a month. At the moment she (30) (read) a book called "Paula's Dream" which (31) (tell) the story of a girl called Paula who (32) (want) to become a nurse.

Form yes/no questions and negations of the sentences given. Mind the tenses!

The Millers live in an apartment in a big city.

Mrs Miller works at a museum.

Mrs Miller is chatting with Peter.

Peter got a ball for his birthday.

Tom and his friends were having fun at the birthday party.

Sarah reads five books a month.

Tom can ride his bike faster than Peter.

The Millers have a dog.

Sarah was watching TV yesterday afternoon.

Peter always does his homework in the evening.