Writing and Introduction to your opinion essay:

1. Restate the question
2. Give a general sentence
3. State your opinion

After each question, write at least three sentences to introduce the topic:

1. Many young drivers are involved in car accidents. Do you think the driving age should be raised to 19?

_____
_____
_____
_____

2. Parents are giving their young children cell phones so they can call them during the day. Do you believe young children should have their own cell phones?

_____
_____
_____
_____

3. Many young people choose to travel to some exotic places before starting University. Do you think it is better to travel for a year or is it more important to start University as soon as you can?

_____
_____
_____
_____

4. A new friend is interested in moving to your neighborhood. Would you recommend living in your neighborhood or not?

_____
_____
_____

5. If you had to spend a week alone on a desert island, what two things would you absolutely have to take with you?

_____
_____
_____