Anne: Hey Stephanie, how was your holiday?

Stephanie: Hi, Anne. You won't believe it! I was on a jungle safari with my parents.

Anne: What?! That's so cool! Where were you? In Africa?

Stephanie: Yeah! We were in Kenya. It was so exciting.

Anne: I can imagine. What did you see out there?

Stephanie: We saw a lot of wild animals. There were many antelopes and zebras. Then lions and rhinos... It was all so impressive! Kenyan wildlife is amazing.

Anne: Did you see a tiger or a lion? Tigers are beautiful! I saw them only on the screen, but I like them a lot. I think they are so graceful.

Stephanie: No, we did not. We saw only lions, but no tigers.

Anne: Stephanie, and weren't you scared? An animal could attack your jeep or something? It's still dangerous.

Stephanie: Oh, no! It was a jungle safari for tourists. We were in a jeep which was prepared for the tour. And we also had a guide for our safety. Nothing attacked us.

Anne: Did you visit any towns?

Stephanie: Yes, we actually stayed in a hotel not far from the city called Mombasa. In the morning we usually sunbathed on the beach. And after lunch we went to the city to see some historical sights. Mum also shopped for souvenirs, and me and dad took a lot of photos.

Anne: I see you had a great time.

Stephanie: We surely did! And I brought a bracelet for you, Anne. It's traditional Kenyan handmade jewellery.

Anne: Oh, thanks, Stephanie.
