FCE - OPEN CLOZE.

FREE TIME ACTIVITIES.

Spare time activities basically fall _____ two categories: traditional and modern. The traditional ones include pastimes _____ as collecting and reading while modern activities _____ playing computer, _____ the net and watching TV.

Kids are fond _____ collecting things when they come _____ things their parents of grandparents have collected. Although they are _____ on doing so when they first start, they usually become _____ up _____ it as soon as they reach their late teens. Reading is normally a leisure activity that develops with parental encouragement. Unlike collecting, reading is a pastime that people _____ ever abandon.

Nowadays _____ are different modern activities which are based _____ technology and it is not unusual to find a teenager's bedroom full _____ computer games. While these last ones are considered to be mainly a teenage pastime, surfing the web is always popular _____ both teenagers and adults. Another pastime which teenagers have _____ common with adults is watching Netflix. It is interesting to _____ that none of these activities involve having a discussion _____ important issues- something which has always been very important indeed.