

Name: _____ Date: _____

Federalists and Anti-Federalists

FEDERALIST

ANTI-FEDERALIST

A strong national government is the only way to run a productive country.

A weak central government is just fine by me.

I don't want the states to lose their power.

National power is more important than state's rights.

Alexander Hamilton's opinions are different than mine.

Alexander Hamilton

I feel under your ideas the president could easily become king.