Following a dream

Zara is an ambitious young musician from Manchester. Her parents loved classical music, and her mum started giving her piano lessons when she was just five years old. Zara was a talented child, and she learned quickly.

Zara is seventeen now. These days her real passion is electronic music, and her favourite instrument is the keyboard. She sings, too, and she writes her own songs.

At weekends, Zara usually gets together with a few other musicians and friends. They make music videos and upload them to the Internet. Their videos are very popular – the last one had ten thousand views on its first day.

Zara is still at school, but she already knows what she wants to do with her future. "When I leave school, I'm going to travel around the world and explore different types of music. My ambition is to become a successful musician. It won't be easy!"

- 1 When did Zara start having piano lessons?

- 2 What is Zara's favourite type of music?

- 3 When does Zara make her music videos?

- 4 What does Zara want to learn about?

- 5 What does Zara want to be when she's older?

Hi Julia!

We 1 a-'re having / b- have a fantastic time on our tour of London. Today we 2 a-'re going to see / b-will see the Houses of Parliament. It's got a really old clock tower with a huge bell inside. You 3 a- shouldn't / b-can't go inside, but you 4 a- can / b-could hear the bell chime the hours from the street. The bell weighs 13,760 kilos! They call the tower Big Ben, but that's really the name of the bell. 5 a-After / b-After that we're going to see Buckingham Palace. It has got 775 rooms. We can visit some of the rooms and the garden. The Queen usually 6 a-lives / b-is living there, but not 7 a-on / b-in the summer. That's when she goes on holiday to Scotland.

Tomorrow we 8 a-will visit / b- 're visiting the Tower of London. We 9 a- will take / b-'re taking a boat along the River Thames. The Tower of London is one of 10 a-the oldest / b-older palaces in London and inside the museum you can see the crown jewels. Some people say there are ghosts in the Tower, too!
