Read each word problem and solve.

Addition with regrouping.

1.   Roberto had 346 trading cards. He bought 148 today. How many cards does Roberto have in all?

2.   Mindy's class saved 221 soup labels. The rest of the school saved 869. How many labels does the school have altogether?

3.   Trey had 2 623 rocks in his collection. He found 1 077 more. What is the total number of rocks in his collection?

4.   The pet store sold 3 435 fish for sale last month. This month, 2708 were sold.   What is the sum of the fish that were sold last month and this month?

5.   Carlos purchased 5 005 beans for his bean bag. His mother bought 3 296 beans for him. How many beans does Carlos have now?