

Before and after.

Spelling days of the week and months of the year.

Monday (remember o like in mother)

Monday _____

Tuesday (remember to put ue . The 'e' makes the 'u' say its name)

Tuesday _____

Wednesday (three parts – Wed nes day)

Wednesday _____

Thursday (it's the 'ur' er like in hurt)

Thursday _____

Friday (just I making a long sound)

Friday _____

Saturday (ur like in hurt again)

Saturday _____

Sunday (u for umbrella)

Sunday _____

Today is _____.

Tomorrow is _____.

Yesterday was _____.

The day after Thursday is _____.

The day before Sunday is _____.

The day after Wednesday is _____.

The hardest day to spell is Wednesday. It helps to say it in three parts.

1) Wed (like red) 2) nes 3) day

The day after Tuesday is _____.

January February - both end with u-ary.

(Don't forget the 'r' in February)

January _____

February _____

March (ar like in car)

March _____

April _____

May (y on the end like day)

May _____

June (e on the end makes u say its name)

June _____

July (u says its name and y says its name)

July _____

August (Au - says or)

August _____

September (three parts Sep tem ber)

September _____

October (three parts Oc to ber)

October _____

November (three parts No vem ber)

November _____

December (three parts De cem ber - remember the 'e' in De, and c makes a 's' sound)

December _____

Put the months back in order.

April June January May October
February September December March
July November August

After September _____

Before February _____

After February _____

Before December _____

The last month _____

The first month _____

This month _____

Next month _____

Last month _____

The month after June _____

The month before September _____