Grouping addends word problems.

Read each problem, group the addends and solve.

1.   There are 25 apples, 12 bananas and 15 mangoes. How many fruits are there in all?

2.   Tim collected 35 shells. Paul collected 26 shells. Anthony collected 14 shells. Altogether they collected how many shells?

3.   Mom bought 43 red buttons, 22 blue buttons and 12 green buttons. What is the total number of buttons that Mom bought?

4.   On a farm, there are 57 horses, 38 pigs and 47 chickens. What is the sum of the animals on the farm?