

Extra Practice

Future tenses

Will, Going to or Present Continuous for future?

1. Drag the uses into the correct box of future tenses.

-Future arrangements	-Plans	-Spontaneous Decisions	-Promises
-Intentions	-Offers	-Forecast	-Predictions
-Previously made decisions	-Something that is likely to happen

WILL	GOING TO	PRESENT CONTINUOUS (for future)
-------------	-----------------	--

2. Choose the right option to complete each sentence.

- a. I've talked to your teacher yesterday. We _____ tomorrow at 5 o'clock p.m.
- b. Oh! What's that smoke? I _____ turn off the heater.
- c. My sister _____ a birthday party tomorrow at 8 p.m.
- d. _____ continue studying next year? What are your plans?

- e. There _____ any more busses in 2050. I think everyone _____ a car.
- f. Look at the sky! It _____.
- g. I'm so excited because next month we _____ to a new flat.
- h. Ginna _____ a doctor when she grows up.

3. Put the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- a. We _____ (watch) a film tomorrow with Billy. He _____ (come) to my house.
- b. Mary thinks that Mark _____ (be) a famous actor soon.
- c. The way things are going with the business, we _____ (not make) a fortune.
- d. What _____ (you/do) at the weekend?
- e. A: "Someone is knocking the door". B: "I _____ (open)."
- f. I'm pretty sure our teacher _____ (not give) us any homework.
- g. In five days his cousins _____ (open) their new restaurant.
- h. I _____ (not stay) at my parents' house much longer. I'm planning to move out next year.