

Extra Practice

Future tenses

Will, Going to or Present Continuous for future?

1. Drag the uses into the correct box of future tenses.

-Future arrangements	-Plans	-Spontaneous Decisions	-Promises
-Intentions	-Offers	-Forecast	-Predictions
-Previously made decisions		-Something that is likely to happen

WILL

GOING TO

PRESENT
CONTINUOUS
(for future)

2. Choose the right option to complete each sentence.

- I've talked to your teacher yesterday. We _____ tomorrow at 5 o'clock p.m.
- Oh! What's that smoke? I _____ turn off the heater.
- My sister _____ a birthday party tomorrow at 8 p.m.
- _____ continue studying next year? What are your plans?

e. There _____ any more busses in 2050. I think everyone _____ a car.

f. Look at the sky! It _____.

g. I'm so excited because next month we _____ to a new flat.

h. Ginna _____ a doctor when she grows up.

3. Put the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

a. We _____ (watch) a film tomorrow with Billy. He _____ (come) to my house.

b. Mary thinks that Mark _____ (be) a famous actor soon.

c. The way things are going with the business, we _____ (not make) a fortune.

d. What _____ (you/do) at the weekend?

e. A: "Someone is knocking the door". B: "I _____ (open)."

f. I'm pretty sure our teacher _____ (not give) us any homework.

g. In five days his cousins _____ (open) their new restaurant.

h. I _____ (not stay) at my parents' house much longer.
I'm planning to move out next year.