

Verb to Be

Fill in the Verb to Be in the Positive / Negative form (in the PRESENT tense).

Pay Attention to: Countable / Uncountable Nouns & to Subject-Verb Agreement

1. The stars in the sky _____ shining.
2. You and I _____ best friends.
3. All the people on the movie set _____ actors.
4. The painting in that museum _____ well guarded.
5. The woman in these magazines _____ famous at all. I wonder why she _____ in them.
6. The milk in these cartons _____ fresh because it _____ from two weeks ago.
7. Some lecturers in the university _____ very tough.
8. Don't gaze at blind people as if they _____ weird. It _____ polite.
9. I _____ sure that your mother and father _____ quite amazed by the news. The news _____ over whelming. I, on the other hand, _____ shocked because I have heard it before.
10. Don't touch the meat that _____ in that package. My mother _____ planning on using it in a new dish.
11. Some of the politicians in this party _____ honest in the least. On the contrary: I believe that they _____ so devious that the simple man will fall in their trap.
12. The software on my new computer _____ absolutely terrible. The salesmen _____ complete frauds. Perhaps I should complain. No one will ever buy there again.
13. The goods in the store _____ quite fascinating. All the rich men in the city _____ talking about them.
14. The teachers' room _____ full of teachers that _____ eager to start working. It _____ the beginning of the year and one of them _____ absolutely sure that the students _____ eager too. _____ she right? I fear that she _____. The students _____ as eager as she _____.
15. Water _____ less and less found on earth. Unfortunately, humans _____ concerned enough about the situation. That _____ the reason that not enough _____ being done to save the world from water shortage.
16. The files on your desk _____ super important. Please secure them in a locked safe. The safe _____ in your office but in mine. Give them to me when you and your partner _____ finished with them.
17. The heirs of this mansion _____ very excited. They believe that it