

Name: _____

1. Fill in the appropriate word.

We had _____ eggs for breakfast. (to cook sth such as an egg with its shell removed, by putting it in gently boiling water or other liquid).

Could I have a bottle of _____ water, please. (bubbly)

There's a little jam left in the _____. (glass container with a wide opening at the top and a lid, used for storing food).

This recipe takes four _____ of garlic. (small separate part of garlic)

He _____ off in the class. (to begin sleeping, especially not intentionally)

I'd like my stake _____ please. (soft, easy to cut or chew)

Some more coffee should keep you _____ for a while. (quick to see, understand and act)

I only drink _____ milk. (fat has been removed)

He put the _____ on the table. (knives, forks, spoons)

Fry the _____ meat on the frying pan. (ground into small pieces)

2. Fill in the appropriate phrasal verb with put and make.

They _____ many great ideas. (suggest)

The meeting had to be _____ for a week (postpone)

He tried to _____ his terrible behaviour by taking the child to the cinema. (compensate)

Every month I _____ some money to buy a new sofa. (save)

The burglar _____ with 10,000 euros. (stole)

3. Fill in: much, many.

There aren't _____ cookies in the jar.

They had so _____ books that they had to stack them in the hall.

Do you serve _____ vegetarian dishes?

There isn't _____ water on the floor.

_____ effort won't be required to solve this problem.

4. Fill in: little, few, a little, a few.

We had _____ ice cream after dinner. (some)
They offered _____ help for my problem. (barely any) _____ doctors from the hospital play on the softball team. (not many) _____ restaurants in this town offer vegetarian dishes. (only a small number)
There's _____ pepper in the soup (not enough)

5. Fill in the container.

Add a _____ of salt.
There are two _____ of juice in the fridge.
I bought a _____ of chocolates and a _____ of soap.
To make the salad dressing, take vinegar and add just a _____ of olive oil.
My granny always gives me a _____ of home-made jam when I visit her.
Will you give me a _____ of crisps and a _____ of Coke
(aluminium container)
There's one _____ of beans in the fridge.

6. Translate.

Paljud lapsed on allergilised piimatoodete vastu.

Riivi juust ja pane see täidetud paprikatele peale.

Kõigepealt tuleb jahu ära sõeluda.

Arstid soovivad süüa kiudainerikast toitu.

Kõigepealt klopi monad vispliga vahule ja siis lisa jahu.

Herned, oad ja läätsed on kõik seedimisele väga kasulikud.