

-ED / -ING Adjectives

1. Are you (satisfy) with your test results? – (Satisfy) – yes, (please) – no. I could have done better.
2. Everyone thought John was an embarrassment to his family, which tells a lot, as the Pyms were never easily (embarrass).
3. Did you like the "Minions" cartoon? – Well, for me it was mildly (amuse), but my kid loved it.
4. The recent Marvel twist in the Captain America comic line about Cap being Hydra was undoubtedly (shock), but many fans were simply (disgust).
5. Do you think Luke was (surprise) to learn Darth Vader was his father? – (Surprise)? I think he was (astonish) and (confuse).
6. I find "Star Trek TOS" highly (entertain). It often deals with serious topics, and at the same time has many (amuse) interactions between characters.
7. Are you (excite) about the release of the "Guardians of the Galaxy: Vol. 2"? - Of course I am! Who isn't?
8. So, what do you think of the "Silmarillion"? – I got (confuse) by all the characters and their relations and couldn't finish the book. – Oh, I know the feeling. I have an edition with all the family trees in the end of the book, it makes everything much less (confuse). I can lend it to you. – Great! Then I'll give it another try.