so...that / such...that

They express a cause and effect.

So + adjective/adverb + that	Such + (adjective) + NOUN + that
Cause: It was too windy.	Cause: It was a great movie.
Effect: We couldn't go sailing.	Effect: I watched it several times.
It was so windy that we couldn't go sailing.	It's such a great movie that I've watched it several times. (great-adjective, movie-noun)

1. Complete the sentences with so or such:

They were _____ happy that they started singing.

Jojo Moyes is _____ a good writer.

We swam_____ quickly that they won the triathlon.

Anna had been writing for_____ long that she fell asleep.

The weather was _____ hot that I stayed inside.

Maria is _____ a brilliant woman that everyone admires her.

Those shoes are _____expensive that I can never afford them.

I have _____great memories with him that I will never forget him.

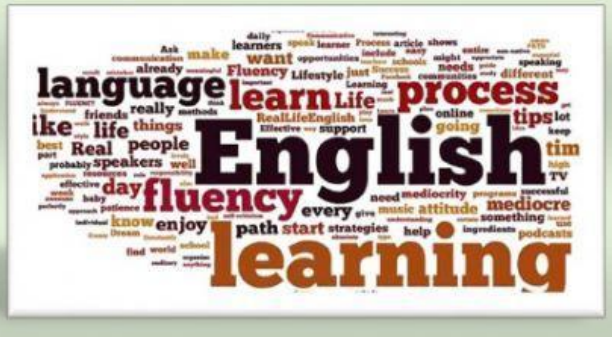
She is_____ a clever girl that she can learn multiple languages at the same time.

She is _____shy that she would only talk to her parents.

Our teacher is _____funny that she always makes us laugh.

We spend _____much money that we can't save any.

Children are _____happy that they smile all day.

The students have_____ long exams this week that they are exhausted.


Hawaii has _____amazing beaches that everyone wants to live there.