

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Separation of Powers

1. The powers of the national government are separated into different branches to:
2. The U.S. Constitution divides the governments power into ____ branches.
3. The legislative branch is made up of ____:
4. The executive branch is led or headed by the ____:
5. The judicial branch is made up ____.
6. The highest court in the land is the ____.
7. Who tries cases involving federal laws?
8. Who regulates interstate and foreign trade?
9. Who declares war?

10. Who carries out the law?

11. Who approves the annual budget?

12. Who has the power to make sure the other branches are following the U.S. Constitution (A.K.A. judicial review)?

13. Who makes treaties with other countries?

14. Who appoints/picks cabinet officers, ambassadors, and federal judges?

Executive/Judicial/Legislative*

15. Who raises revenue through taxes and other levies?