

Circle the correct words.

I've got @ / an great new laptop.

1. Have you got a / any good computer games?
2. I need some / any new speakers for my desktop.
3. There isn't some / any fruit. Can you go to the supermarket and buy a few oranges and bananas, please?
4. I haven't got a / any ruler. Can I borrow yours?
5. Is there some / any homework for Monday?
6. Some / Any of these exercises are very easy but I can't do number three.

Choose the correct words.

Tom Usher got a very interesting job last week. He began to work as a games tester. He had a problem. First, he only had one computer at home and it didn't have (1) some / much memory. He didn't have (2) many / any experience playing games because he didn't have (3) many / any of them at home.

Tom asked his brother, 'Have you got (4) any / much games to lend me?' Tom's brother said, 'I haven't got (5) some / many, five or six perhaps.' Tom's parents lent him (6) some / any money. He bought a memory card and stored very interesting information on many games. He began to study different types of games. This made his job easier.

Complete the sentences with a, an, some or any.

Have you got an English dictionary?

1. I've got _____ amazing new computer.
2. Have you got _____ video games?
3. There are _____ new students in my class.
4. I've got my bag but I haven't got _____ money.
5. You need _____ speakers for your computer.