

Reading: The Millionaire With A Secret

I. Read the passages and mark the sentences with T (True), F (False), or NG (Not Given)

1. Jeff Pearce found reading and writing interesting. _____
2. Jeff wasn't his real name. _____
3. Dyslexia was a common disease at that time. _____
4. Jeff first became a salesperson when he and his mother bought old clothes from other people to sell in the market. _____
5. Jeff's mother was optimistic about his future. _____
6. He wanted to be a famous salesman. _____

II. Read and fill in the gaps. Write no more than two words.

1. When he owned a shop in 1983, he sold trousers extremely _____.
2. Pictures of his shoppers were published in the _____.
3. Jeff first became a wealthy person from selling _____.
4. Jeff lived in poverty again as a result of the _____ in the 1990s.
5. Later Jeff made a lot of money again from Jeff's, his _____.

III. Multiple questions

1. Who changed Jeff's real name?
a. Jeff                      b. Jeff's mother                      c. His father
2. What did his teachers think of him when he was at school?
a. Intelligent              b. Poor                      c. Stupid
3. How did Jeff and his mother get old clothes to sell in the market?
a. They bought them from another market.
b. People donated them to him because they loved him.
c. He went to ask people for their old clothes from door to door.
4. What did he first sell in his small boutique?
a. Leather trousers
b. Old clothes
c. Photos of his shoppers
5. What did he have to do after the recession in the 1990s?
a. Go back to school.
b. Sell old clothes again.
c. Create a new business.