

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Amendments

1. All male citizens have the right to vote regardless of race. Which amendment is this?
2. The president cannot serve more than two terms. Which amendment is this?
3. Citizens of one state cannot sue another state in federal court. Which amendment is this?
4. Repealed prohibition. Which amendment is this?
5. Every person born or naturalized in the US is a citizen. Which amendment is this?
6. No search and seizure without a warrant and probable cause. Which amendment is this?
7. Ban of poll tax as a qualification to vote. Which amendment is this?
8. Any rights not given in the Constitution are reserved for the people. Which amendment is this?
9. Cannot increase/decrease salaries of members of Congress in the middle of a term. Which amendment is this?
10. The people elect US senators. Which amendment is this?
11. Slavery is abolished. Which amendment is this?
12. Women's suffrage (right to vote). Which amendment is this?

13. You have the right to a fair/speedy trial and an impartial jury. Which amendment is this?
14. Congress can tax income. Which amendment is this?
15. Freedom of speech, press, religion, assembly, and petition. Which amendment is this?
16. President and Vice President are elected through the process of the electoral college. Which amendment is this?
17. Voting age changed from 21 years old to 18 years old. Which amendment is this?
18. No quartering of soldiers. Which amendment is this?
19. Any powers not given to the federal government are given to the states. Which amendment is this?
20. Prohibition of alcohol. Which amendment is this?
21. You have the right to a lawyer. Which amendment is this?
22. The President is inaugurated in January. Congress begins to meet in January. Which amendment is this?
23. No excessive bail and cruel and unusual punishment.
24. No double jeopardy. Which amendment is this?
25. Right to bear arms. Which amendment is this?

26. Gives Washington D.C. three electoral votes. Which amendment is this?
27. Right to a trial by jury in civil cases over $20. Which amendment is this?
28. If the president dies or cannot serve, the vice president becomes president. If both die, the Speaker of the House becomes president. Which amendment is this?
29. The government must provide compensation for private property. Which amendment is this?
30. You must be informed of the charges against you. Which amendment is this?