Decide whether the following sentences have adverbs of frequency, time, manner, degree, or comment.

1. The English test was extremely difficult.
2. If you want to see the hot air balloon, you will have to go outside.
3. We are going to the festival tomorrow.
4. Susan is hardly ever late for school.
5. We must speak quietly in the library.
6. I always eat breakfast before going to work.
7. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend the party as I will be working.
8. He was driving very dangerously because he was drunk.
9. My teacher is usually very calm. She seldom loses her temper.
10. I occasionally eat sushi.
11. You had better try to be home before dark.
12. He didn't work hard enough to pass his exams.
13. Obviously, you don't know what you are talking about!
14. The dog bravely defended his master.
15. I can't sit comfortably on this chair.
16. You need to finish that work immediately!
17. They eat in a restaurant from time to time.
18. Surely you can manage to do it by yourself?
19. Please put all those books on the table.
20. Paul accidentally slipped on the ice.
21. We visit our family twice a year.
22. Jean waited patiently for the computer to load.
23. Mark and Mary are happily married.
24. Does Jane usually have lunch at home?
25. The Post Office is almost two miles away!

liveworksheets.com